MR. PATTISON RETURNS.

He Will Favor the Cigarette Ordinance

. But Wants its Scope Enlarged. Councilman J. D. Pattison has returned from Oskaloasa, where he has been for some weeks on business, and says he will be on hand from this time forward to attend to his duties as a representative of the first and best ward, in the city council. He has been appointed on some of the most important committees. He is chairman of the committee on sewers and waterworks, and is a member of the committees on gas and electric lights, streets and walks, fire depart-ment, license and health.

When asked by a STATE JOURNAL reporter this morning regarding his posi-tion on the ordinance introduced last night prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys he said: "I shall favor the ordinance, but I believe it should be so changed as to prohibit the sale of an article so pernicious to health and morals.

to anybody. "I believe every tobacco dealer and grocery man in the city would favor such an ordinance, as those I have talked with on the subject say there is no money in thebusiness and they only carry them be-cause they must, and they interfere with the sale of other forms of tobacco on which there is a little profit."

MASONIC FIRE ESCAPES.

Chief Wilmarth Wants Them on the Front of the Temple. Chief Wilmarth reported to the city council last night that he had ordered the receivers of the Lombard Investment company to put fire escapes on the front of the Masonic building, and the receivers have refused to do so. The city attorney was instructed to take the necessary legal steps to have Chief Wilmarth's orders respected. The objections to the fire escapes are that they will distigure the building. The rear should be amply provided with them if the front isn't. Special permission might be granted to build an outside stairway leading down to the alley.

WHAT CONGRESS HAS DONE

An Innocent Volume with this Title Crestes Some Merriment in the Sanate. WASHINGTON, May 8 .- Dr. A. E. Mc-Candless, of Pittsburg, played a practical joke on some of his friends in Congress yesterday. Calling to him the chief page of the senate he placed in his hand a small volume and said: "Will you please hand that to Senator Quay, with my compliments."

The book was perfectly innocent in appearance, and was entitled "What Congress Has Done." Dr. McCandless slipped over into one of the galleries and watched Senator Quay receive the book. Senator Quay opened the book, and as he glanced from page to page his face relaxed into a smile and as he went on he broke into a hearty laugh. After a few moments he called a page and told him to take the book to Vice-President Ste-

Vice-President Stevenson looked at the cover, glanced through the book, and then as Senator Quay had done, began to laugh heartily. He shook his finger at Senator Quay, and, calling the boy back to him, sent the book down to Senator Peffer. The gentleman from Kansas looked at the book for an instant and then he laughed quietly behind his beard. He passed the book to Senator Hale, and so it went the whole round and was greeted everywhere with a hearty laugh. Although the book had a carefully worded cover, the inside pages were blank.
